

Appendix D
Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children

FAMILY: Family Composition and Organization

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Native sovereignty: A strategy for Hawaiian family survival in Resiliency in Native American and immigrant families. Resiliency in families series	Trask, H. (Editors: H. McCubbin, I. Hamilton, E. A. Thompson)	1998	Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiians			Discusses the origins & recent history of Hawaii & the native Hawaiian family. Two defining cultural attributes of the Hawaiian family are discussed: the affective nature of Hawaiian families & the continuing desire for many children.
Towards an understanding of the native Hawaiian concept and manifestation of giftedness in Dissertation Abstracts International	Martin, D. E.	1996	Inter Library Loan	20 Native Hawaiian participants	Islands of HI and O'ahu	interviews	Qualitative descriptors of student behaviors associated with giftedness as valued by the native Hawaiian community

Appendix D
Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children

FAMILY: Family Economic and Social Characteristics

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Vulnerable but invincible: High risk children from birth to adulthood in European Child & Adolescent Psychiatry	Werner, E. E.	1996	Inter Library Loan	babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Summarizes the main implications of the Kauai Longitudinal Study
The identification of priority sites for parent-child services in Journal of Social Service Research	Heath, R. W., & Plett, J. D.	1988	Hamilton Library	164 elementary school attendance areas	State of HI		Methodology to provide an empirical procedure for identifying those geographic locations that have the largest concentration of Hawaiian families w/ young children with the most intensive education-related needs
Resilient offspring of alcoholics: A longitudinal study from birth to age 18 in Journal of Studies on Alcohol	Werner, E. W.	1986	Hamilton Library	babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Studied factors that predict successful adjustment in children from alcoholic families
Overcoming the odds: High risk children from birth to adulthood	Werner, E. E., & Smith, R. S.	1992	Hamilton Library	babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Looks closely at the lives of an ethnically diverse group of 505 men and women who were born in 1955
Overcoming the odds in Journal of Developmental & Behavioral	Werner, E. W.	1994	Hamilton Library	201 babies born on the Hawaiian island of Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Discusses the results of a longitudinal study investigating resiliency in high risk children exposed to both biologic and psychosocial risk factors.
Native Hawaiian Mental Health in Contemporary issues in mental health research in the Pacific Islands	Takeuchi, D., Higginbotham, N., Marsella, et.al. (Editors A. Robillard & A. Marsella, Anthony J).	1987	Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiians		psychological study	Mental health of Native Hawaiians must be seen within the context of historical events : child abuse, suicides, alcohol and substance abuse, crime.
Intergroup differences among Native Americans in socialization and child cognition: An ethnogenetic analysis in Cross-cultural roots of minority child development	Tharp, R. G. (Editors: P. M. Greenfield & R. R. Cocking)	1994	Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiian & Navajo Native American children			Focuses on cognitive styles of N. Hawaiian and Navajo N. American children

Appendix D
Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
High-risk children in young adulthood: A longitudinal study from birth to 32 years in American Journal of Orthopsychiatry	Werner, E. W.	1988	Hamilton Library	babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Study has monitored the impact on development of a variety of biological and psychosocial risk factors, stressful life events, and protective factors in early and middle childhood and late adolescence and adult life
Ethnic variations in the manifestation of child psychopathology: A cross-sectional, developmental study of Hawaii school children	Loo, S. K.	1998	UH Psychology Dept.			study	Variations in child psychopathology associated with ethnicity and other demographic variables such as, gender, age, referral status and socio-economic status while holding environmental factors constant
Ethnic variations in children's problem behaviors: A cross-sectional, developmental study of Hawaii school children in Journal of Child Psychology & Psychiatry & Allied Disciplines	Loo, S. K., & Rapport, M. D.	1998	Hamilton Library	804 18-yr-old children		survey	Variations in children's problem behaviors associated with ethnicity and other demographic variables were examined in residing in a multicultural environment.
Children of the Garden Island in Current readings in child development (2nd ed.)	Werner, E. E. (Editor: J. S. DeLoache)	1994	Hamilton Library	698 infants and children	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	The 30 yr. study had 2 goals: (1) assess the long-term consequences of prenatal and perinatal stress, & (2) document the effects of adverse early rearing conditions on children's physical, cognitive & psychosocial development.

Appendix D
Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children

FAMILY: Family Functioning/Harmony

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Cumulative effect of family environment on psychiatric symptomatology among multiethnic adolescents in Journal of Adolescent Health	Goebert, D., Nahulu, L., Hishinuma, E., Bell, C., Yuen, N., Carlton, B., Andrade, N. N., Miyamoto, R., & Johnson, R.	2000	Hamilton Library	4000 students from 5 high schools in HI		survey	Examines the influence of family adversity and support on levels of psychiatric symptomatology in Hawaiian & non-Hawaiian adolescents.
Ethnicity, schema, and coherence: Appraisal processes for families in crisis in Stress, coping, and health in families: Sense of coherence and resiliency. Resiliency in families series	McCubbin, H. I., Thompson, A. I., Thompson, E. A., Elver, K. M., & McCubbin, M. A. (Editors: H. I. McCubbin & E. A. Thompson)	1998	Hamilton Library	155 families of preschool-aged N. Hawaiian children			Identifies & defines the family processes of appraisal, focusing on the concept of family schema, inclusive of culture & ethnicity; & second, by studies family schema in Native Hawaiian families, including their culturally related values, beliefs, & world views
Economic change, family cohesion, and mental health in a rural Hawaii community in Families in Society	Matsuoka, Jon K; Benson, Melanie.	1996	Hamilton Library	201 Native Hawaiian adults	Lanai	interview	Relationships between family cohesion & mental health
Identifying family violence: A community prototype incorporating Native Hawaiian values and practices in Hawaii Medical Journal	Wilcox, G. N, & Armstrong, L. J.	1996	Hamilton Library				Manual for health care professionals to adapt, expand, or refine in their work w/ Hawaiians & non-Hawaiians
The social construction and subjective reality of activity settings: Implications for community psychology in American Journal of Community Psychology	Gallimore, R., Goldenberg, C. N., & Weisner, T. S.	1993	Hamilton Library	N. Hwn children & fam., Sp.-speaking children & Mxn & Ctrl Amer immigrant parents, Euro-Amer fam. w/ a dev. delayed child, & Euro-Amer fam.		study	Families who intentionally adopted nonconventional child-rearing values & practices.
Families with native Hawaiian and Pacific Island roots in Developing cross-cultural competence: A guide for working with young children and their families	Mokuau, N., & Tauili'ili, P. (Editors: E. W. Lynch & M. J. Hanson)	1992	Hamilton Library	N.H. & Samoans			Describes Native Hawaiians and Samoans w/ descriptive information to examine intervention with families and children
A family-centered approach in native Hawaiian culture in Families in Society	Mokuau, N.	1990	Hamilton Library	5 N.H. spiritual healers			Describes a family-centered approach in native Hawaiian culture

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

CHILD AND FAMILY HEALTH

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Integrating cultural values, beliefs, and customs into pregnancy and postpartum care: lessons learned from a Hawaiian public health nursing project in Journal of Perinatal Neonatal Nursing	Mayberry L. J., Affonso, D. D., Shibuya, J., & Clemmens, D.	1999	Inter Library Loan	N.H., Filipino, and Japanese women	State of HI		Profiles central design elements w/ ex. of specific interventions used in the Malama Na Wahine or Caring for Pregnant Women program to illustrate a unique approach to the delivery of culturally competent care.
Ethnic-specific predictors of prenatal care utilization in Hawai'i in Pediatric Perinatal Epidemiology	Kogan, M. D., Alexander, G. R., Mor, J. M., & Kieffer, E. C.	1998	Inter Library Loan	4 major ethnic groups of HI	State of HI	study	Examines predictors of prenatal care utilization patterns
Guided affective and cognitive imagery to enhance self-esteem among Hawaiian children in Journal of Multicultural Counseling & Development	Omizo, M.M., Omizo, S. A., & Kitaoka, S. K.	1998	College of Education	60 N. H. children (ages 8-12 yrs)		study	Examined the use of guided affective and cognitive imagery to enhance self-esteem
Hawaii's Hana Like home visitor program, a healthy start program in Journal of Psychohistory	Mansfield, H.	1997	Hamilton Library	Healthy Start PACT families			Describes the Hana Like home visitor program at Parents and Children Together to prevent child abuse and neglect through family-centered approaches
Native Hawaiian children in Transcultural child development: Psychological assessment and treatment	Untalan, F. F., Guillory, A. W., Hartley, C. T. (Editors G. Johnson-Powell, & J. Yamamoto)	1997	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children	State of HI	interviews, analyzing existing data	Developmental & educational outcomes among native Hawaiian children are presented in this chapter. Child-rearing patterns and developmental expectations during infancy, early childhood, latency, and adolescence are explored.
Hawaiian-style "talkstory": Psychosocial assessment and intervention during and after pregnancy in Journal of Obstetric, Gynecologic, and Neonatal Nursing	Affonso, D. D., Mayberry, L., Inaba, A., Matsuno, R., & Robinson E.	1996	Inter Library Loan	Women from Asian and Pacific Islander ethnic groups			Describes the use of talkstory for delivering psychosocial care and its application in the design of health care services for pregnant women in the general population
Health and related services for Native Hawaiian adolescents in Health issues for minority adolescents. Child, youth, and family services	Miike, L. (Editors: M. Kagawa-Singer, P. A. Katz, Phyllis A.)	1996	Univ. of Nebraska	Native Hawaiians	State of HI		Information on the health services for Native Hawaiian adolescents residing in the state of Hawaii

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Vulnerable but invincible: High risk children from birth to adulthood in European Child & Adolescent Psychiatry	Werner, E. E.	1996	Inter Library Loan	Babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Summarizes the main implications of the Kauai Longitudinal Study
High mortality rates in Native Hawaiians in Hawaii Medical Journal	Braun K. L., Look, M. A., & Tsark J. A.	1995	Hamilton Library	N.H & Part-Hwn			N.H. physicians recommend greater attention be given to N.H. values & participation in health care delivery, increasing access to services, & further research
Pregnancy outcomes of Pacific islanders in Hawai'i in American Journal of Epidemiology	Kieffer, E. C., Alexander, G. R., & Mor, J.M.	1995	Hamilton Library	HI births	State of HI	study	Vital record files were used to examine birth weight, infant mortality, and their correlates in Samoan and Hawaiian residents
Determinants of prenatal care use in Hawaii: implications for health promotion in American Journal of Preventive Medicine	Mor J. M., Alexander G. R., Kogan, M. D., Kieffer, E.C., & Hulsey T.C.	1995	Inter Library Loan	Mothers of white, Hawaiian/part-Hawaiian, Filipino, or Japanese ethnicity	State of HI	study	Examines the association between maternal sociodemographic characteristics and the receipt of different levels of prenatal care use
Middle ear disorders and hearing loss in Native Hawaiian preschoolers in Language, Speech, and Hearing Services in Schools	Pang-Chang, G.	1995	Inter Library Loan	N. Hawaiian Preschoolers			172 N.H. preschoolers received a battery of tests that included pure-tone audiometry, tympanometry, acoustic reflectometry, and pneumatic otoscopy
The perinatal and infant health status of Native Hawaiians in American Journal of Public Health	Kieffer, E.C., Mor, J. M., & Alexander, G. R.	1994	Hamilton Library	N.H. & White infants	State of HI		Vital record data for 1979-1990 were analyzed to examine potentially differing relationships betw. maternal & infant risks and outcomes in N.H. & White infants
Children of the Garden Island in Current readings in child development (2nd ed.)	Werner, E. E. (Editor: J. S. DeLoache)	1994	Hamilton Library	698 infants and children	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	The 30 yr. study had 2 goals: (1) assess the long-term consequences of prenatal and perinatal stress, and (2) document the effects of adverse early rearing conditions on children's physical, cognitive and psychosocial development.

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Overcoming the odds in Journal of Developmental & Behavioral	Werner, E. W.	1994	Hamilton Library	Babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Discusses the results of a longitudinal study investigating resiliency in high risk children exposed to both biologic and psychosocial risk factors.
Themes of stressors for childbearing women on the island of Hawai'i in Family & Community Health	Affonso, D. D., Mayberry, L. J., Shibuya, J., & Kunimoto, J.	1993	Hamilton Library	women (18-40)	Big Island	study	Describes themes of pregnancy-related stressors reported by women, specifically those from Filipino, Japanese, Hawaiian, or part-Hawaiian ethnic backgrounds who are known to be vulnerable for low-birthweight infants
Prenatal and postpartum care in Hawaii: A community-based approach in Journal of Obstetric, Gynecologic, and Neonatal Nursing	Affonso, D. D., Mayberry, L. J., Graham, K., Shibuya, J., & Kunimoto, J.	1993	Inter Library Loan	Hawaiian, Filipino, and Japanese women	Big Island		Describes a community-based approach to prenatal and postpartum care that has been developed
Relation to subcutaneous fat distribution to percentage of Polynesian ancestry in native Hawaiian children in American Journal of Human Biology	Brown, D. E., Koenig, T. V., Demorales, A. M., Mossman, K. M., Akina, C. M., Sako, E. K.	1993	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children		semilongitudinal survey	Study of the growth from 4 cohorts was carried out w/ measurements taken at 4 consecutive annual visits
Geographic patterns of low birth weight in HI in Social Science & Medicine	Kieffer E. C., Alexander, G. R., Lewis, N. D., & Mor J.	1993	Hamilton Library	HI live births	State of HI	study	This study examines variations in low birth weight, using the 1980 census tract
Growth of native Hawaiian school children: II. Body mass index and skinfold measurements in American Journal Of Human Biology	Brown, D. E., Severance, C. J., Sako, E. K., Chun, D. Y., Young, L. L., & Johnson, J. L.	1992	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children		semilongitudinal survey	urvey of the growth of N.H. school children, focused on the development of fatness
Race, Ethnicity and Birth-Weight: Hawaii 1983-1986 in Hawaii Medical Journal	Crowell, D. H., McGee, R. I., Seto, D., Sharma, S. D., & Dunn-Rankin P.	1992	Hamilton Library	white, Hawaiian, Japanese, and Filipino	O'ahu		Live birth rates of four ethnic groups are compared at different pre-term and post-term periods

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
AIDS in the Native Hawaiian community in Journal of Multicultural Social Work	Mokuau, N., & Kau, A.	1992	Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiians			Looks at the high infection rate for AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome) in Native Hawaiians
Overcoming the odds: High risk children from birth to adulthood	Werner, E. E., & Smith, R. S.	1992	Hamilton Library	babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	looks closely at the lives of an ethnically diverse group of 505 men and women who were born in 1955
Growth of native Hawaiian school children: I. Research design, stature, and weight measurements in American Journal Of Human Biology	Brown, D. E., Johnson, J. L., & Severance, C. J.	1991	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children	Big Island	semilongitudinal survey	Survey of the growth of N.H. school children, focused on the development of fatness
The impoverishment of native Hawaiians and the social work challenge in Health & Social Work	Mokuau, N.	1990	Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiians			Provides an overview of major health and mental health problems among Native Hawaiians
Art activities to improve self-esteem among Native Hawaiian children in Journal of Humanistic Education and Development	Omizo, M. M., & Omizo, S. A.	1989	Hamilton Library	50 N.H. elem. children			Investigated effects of group counseling using art activities in improving self-esteem
High-risk children in young adulthood: A longitudinal study from birth to 32 years in American Journal of Orthopsychiatry	Werner, E. W.	1988	Hamilton Library	Babies born on Kauai in 1955	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Study has monitored the impact on development of a variety of biological & psychosocial risk factors, stressful life events, & protective factors in early & middle childhood and late adolescence and adult life
Resilient offspring of alcoholics: A longitudinal study from birth to age 18 in Journal of Studies on Alcohol	Werner, E. W.	1986	Hamilton Library	Babies born on Kauai in 1956	Kaua'i	longitudinal study	Studied factors that predict successful adjustment in children from alcoholic families

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population Studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
The offender-patient: Penal code authorization of mental health services for Native Hawaiians in Contemporary issues in mental health research in the Pacific Islands	Kassebaum, G. (A. B. Robillard, & A. J. Marsella)		Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiians			Looks at the mental health services, and particularly hospitalization for N. Hawaiians
Birthweight outcomes among Asian American and Pacific Islander subgroups in the US in International Journal of Epidemiology	Le, L.T., Kiely, J. L., & Schoendorf, K. C.		Hamilton Library			data analysis	Examines the risks of moderately low and very low birthweight among Chinese, Japanese, Fillipinos, Asian Indians, Koreans, Vietnamese, Hawaiians, Guamanians, Samoans as compared with non-Hispanic whites
Does acculturation influence psychosocial adaptation and well-being in Native Hawaiians? in International Journal of Social Psychiatry	Streltzer J., Rezentes, W. C., & Arakaki M.		Hamilton Library			study	Tests the hypothesis that cultural affiliation protects against psychosocial pathology in Hawaiians

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

PARENT-CHILD INTERACTIONS AND RELATIONSHIPS

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
"Let momma show you how": Maternal and child interactions and their effects on children's cognitive performance in Journal of Applied Developmental Psychology	Roberts, R.N. & Barnes, M. L.	1992	Hamilton Library	40 N. H. mothers and their 4 yr. old children			Qualitative and quantitative components of maternal speech and involvement were examined as they relate to cognitive skills of children entering preschool.
Parenting Hawaiian-style for happy families in Ka Wai ola o OHA (The Living water of OHA)	Ward, D. L.	1989	OHA				Lecture by Ke'ala Kwan on good parenting that can help create happy children an families today
Affective bonds: Hawaiian interrelationships of self in Person, self, and experience: Exploring Pacific ethnopsychologies	Ito, K. L. (Editors: G. M. White, J. Kirkpatrick)	1985	University of California	six families	Honolulu		Research based on case studies of six families in a neighborhood with the largest percentage of Hawaiians and Part-Hawaiians in Honolulu. It focused on the central mother figure in the household.

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

EARLY CARE AND EDUCATION: School

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Sense of place, community, and identity: Bridging the gap between home and school for Hawaiian Students in Education and Urban Society	Kawakami, A. J.	1999	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Students			Examines issues inherent to the gap between the home and school cultures of Native Hawaiian students
Perceptions of special education in Moloka'i (Doctoral dissertation, University of Hawaii). Dissertation Abstracts International	Ratliffe, K. T.	1999	College of Education		Moloka'i	interviews, focus groups	Describes the attitudes toward and perceptions of children with special needs and special education services on the island of Moloka'i
Sociohistorical influences on the development of Papahana Kaiapuni, the Hawaiian language immersion program in Journal of Education for Students Placed at Risk	Yamauchi, L. A., Ceppi, A. K., & Lau-Smith, J.	1999	Inter Library Loan	K-12 immersion students	State of HI	program	Authors describe the sociohistorical influences on the development of the Kaiapuni program, a K-12 indigenous language immersion program in selected public schools
Adding Cognition to the Formula for Culturally Relevant Instruction in Mathematics in Anthropology & Education Quarterly	Brenner, M. E.	1998	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children		program	Developing culturally relevant instruction in mathematics
A vibrant & vital language is passed down to a new generation: The Punana Leo Immersion Schools in Hawai'i in Winds of Change	Sorensen, B.	1998	Aha Punana Leo				Describes the Punana Leo Immersion Schools in Hawai'i
Improving literacy achievement through a constructivist approach: The KEEP Demonstration Classroom Project in Elementary School Journal	Au, K. H, & Carroll, J. H.	1997	Hamilton Library	Grades K-6 teachers and students		program	Describes the whole-literacy curriculum, instruction that encompasses literacy, writers' and readers' workshops, grade level achievement benchmarks, and portfolio assessment
The competence/incompetence paradox in the education of minority culture children in Mind, culture, and activity: Seminal papers from the Laboratory of Comparative Human Cognition	Gallimore, R., & Au, K. H. (Editors: M. Cole, Y. Engestroem)	1997	Hamilton Library	KEEP students	Selected O'ahu public schools	program	Addresses the problem of the home competence/school incompetence paradox as it applies to minority culture children through KEEP

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Native Hawaiian children in Transcultural child development: Psychological assessment and treatment	Untalan, F. F., Guillory, A. W., Hartley, C. T. (Editors G. Johnson-Powell, & J. Yamamoto)	1997	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children			Developmental & educational outcomes among native Hawaiian children are presented in this chapter. Child-rearing patterns and developmental expectations during infancy, early childhood, latency, and adolescence are explored.
Gender, ethnicity, science achievement and attitudes in Journal of Research in Science Teaching	Greenfield, G. T.	1996	Hamilton Library	3-12 gr. Students			Science achievement and attitudes were assessed for a series of students in grades 3-12 representing Caucasian, Japanese-American, Hawaiians and Filipino American populations
N.H. on Moloka'i: Culture, community, and schooling. Presented at the Annual Meeting of the Amer.Ed. Res. Assoc.	Yamauchi, L. A.	1996	Inter Library Loan	Molokai residents	Moloka'i:		A study examined the values, expectations, and experiences in school among residents of the island of Moloka'i
Indigenous language immersion as an alternative form of schooling for children of Hawaiian ancestry: Lessons from a Six-Year Study	Slaughter, H. B., & Lai, M.	1994	College of Education	N. Hawaiian Children		Six-Year Study	The Hawaiian Language Immersion program (HLI) is described and evaluated
Intergroup differences among Native Americans in socialization and child cognition: An ethnogenetic analysis in Cross-cultural roots of minority child development	Tharp, R. G. (Editors: P. M. Greenfield & R. R. Cocking)	1994	Hamilton Library	Native Hawaiian & Navajo Native American children			Focuses on cognitive styles of N. Hawaiian and Navajo N. American children
Prenatal to Preschool: An integrated approach to school readiness for Native Hawaiian Children	Herman, H.	1993	Inter Library Loan	prenatal to 5 yrs	State of HI	program	Describes Pre-kindergarten Educational Program (PREP), an integrated early education program serving families with children from the prenatal stage through age 5 of Kamehameha Schools.
Early education as community intervention: Assisting an ethnic minority to be ready for school in American Journal of Community Psychology	Roberts, R. N.	1993	Hamilton Library	prenatal to 5 yrs		theory based program	Describes an early education program designed for Native Hawaiians implemented at the community level

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Success models for gifted native students - Presentation at the 25th Annual Conv. of the Nat'l Indian Ed. Assoc.	Sing, D. K.	1993	Ctr. for Gifted & Talented NH Children-UH Hilo				This document lists Center assumptions about underidentification of gifted and talented Native Hawaiian children, and educational practices used to overcome barriers to identification.
The role of culture in minority school achievement in Kamehameha Journal of Education	Jordan, C.	1992	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian children & Navajo children	O'ahu and Arizona	Study	Discusses 2 approaches to minority education--the cultural difference and the secondary discontinuity--and presents a hybrid theory that emphasizes the role of compliance.
The impact of preschool on teaching and learning in Hawaiian families in Anthropology & Education Quarterly	Levin, P.	1992	Hamilton Library	18 low-income N. Hawaiian families		interviews	Examined how native low-income Hawaiian parents organize young children's learning of household skills (HSs) and early literacy skills (ELs).
Development of a criterion-referenced, performance-based assessment of reading comprehension in a whole literacy program.	Tibbetts, K. A.	1992	K. Tibbetts	3rd graders		assessment	The primary purpose - contribute unique and valid information for use in the formative evaluation of a whole literacy program
Special populations: Migrant Students with disabilities; Native Pacific Basin and Native Hawaiian students with disabilities, Appendix G.		1992	Office of Sp. Ed. & Rehab. Serv.	N. Hawaiian Children & migrant students with disabilities			Reports on progress in addressing the needs of two special populations: migrant students with disabilities and Native Pacific Basin and Native Hawaiian students with disabilities.
Culture and ownership: Schooling of minority students in Childhood Education	Au, K. H., & Kawakami, A. J.	1991	Kathy Au	KEEP students	Selected O'ahu public schools	program	Discusses possible solutions to the problem of schools' widespread failure to meet minority students' needs.
Involving different social and cultural groups in discussion in Teaching and learning through discussion: The theory, research and practice of the discussion method	White, J. J. (Editor: W. W. Wilen)	1990	Inter Library Loan	Minority Students			Suggests a variety of strategies that teachers can employ to engage culturally different students in successful discussions

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Counseling Hawaiian children in Elementary School Guidance & Counseling. Special Issue: Cross-cultural counseling	Omizo, M.M., & Omizo, S. A.	1989	Hamilton Library	N. Hawaiian Children			that counselors need to be aware of the special needs and problems of Hawaiian children relative to learning and adjusting to school
On the learning and thinking styles of Hawaiian children in Thinking across cultures: The Third International Conference on Thinking	Speidel, G. E., Farran, D. C., & Jordan, C. (Editors: D. M. Topping & D. C.)	1989	Hamilton Library	Hawaiian children and children from the continental United States			Compares Hawaiian children with an advantaged group of children from the continental United States on solving a task given either visual information or verbal information.
The cultural difference model and applied behavior analysis in the design of early childhood intervention in Cross-cultural research in human development: Life span perspectives	Tanaka-Matsumi, J. (Editor: L. L. Adler)	1989	Hamilton Library	KEEP students	Selected O'ahu public schools	program	Looks at KEEP and the role of the cultural context in developing educational programs for children
The identification of priority sites for parent-child services in Journal of Social Service Research	Heath, R. W., & Plett, J. D.	1988	Hamilton Library	164 elementary school attendance areas	State of HI		Methodology to provide an empirical procedure for identifying those geographic locations that have the largest concentration of Hawaiian families with young children with the most intensive education-related needs
Rousing minds to life: Teaching, learning, and schooling in social context	Tharp, R. G., & Gallimore, R.	1988	Hamilton Library				Discusses need for change in schooling. Sites KEEP as a source of info.
Unpackaging cultural effects on classroom learning: Native Hawaiian peer assistance and child-generated activity in Anthropology & Education Quarterly	Weisner, T. S., Gallimore, R., & Jordan, C.	1988	Hamilton Library	Grades K - 3		observation, interview	Accommodating selected features of natal culture in classroom activities
Encouraging reading and language development in cultural minority children in Topics in Language Disorders	Kawakami, A. J., & Au, K. H.	1986	Hamilton Library	K-3 N. H. students		program	Program designed to build on strengths of gr. K-3 children whose 1st language was a local English dialect or Hawaiian Creole English.

Publications on Native Hawaiian Families and Young Children (con't)

Title of Publication	Author/Source	Date	Location	Population studied	Geography	Methodology	Summary
Translating Culture: From ethnographic information to educational program in Anthropology and Education Quarterly	Jordan, C.	1985	Inter Library Loan	KEEP students	Selected O'ahu public schools	program	Describes how anthropological knowledge has been applied in the Kamehameha Elementary Education Program (KEEP)
Language development in the Hawaii "Follow-Through-Project." in Journal of Reading, Writing, & Learning Disabilities International	Sumida, J. I., & Gillespie, M. C.	1985	Inter Library Loan	560 students K-3		program	Describes the Hawaii Follow Through Project designed to help provide equal educational opportunities for children of low-income families.
Cultural compatibility and the education of Hawaiian children: Implications for mainland educators in Educational Research Quarterly. Special Issue: Culture, language, education in Alaska, Canada, Hawaii, Guam, Puerto Rico, Australia, New Zealand: Implications for US mainland educators.	Jordan, C.	1984	Hamilton Library	KEEP students	Selected O'ahu public schools	program	Describes the Kamehameha Early Education Program (KEEP) as a research and development-based effort to provide low SES Hawaiian children in primary grades with culturally compatible educational experiences.